

Amanda Jones
Assistant Principal
Honorable Luis Muñoz-Marín Elementary School
School District of Philadelphia

“Changing the narrative for our students and providing access to high-quality instruction and equitable experiences is crucial for their success.”

School Type

District

Grade Levels

K-8

Student Enrollment

617

Neighborhood

Fairhill

Education

B.A. in Mass
Communications,
Bloomsburg University
M.Ed., Cabrini College

Amanda has been working in education since 2014 serving in various platforms within the K-3 spectrum as a classroom teacher. Prior to serving in an administrative role, Amanda worked as a reading intervention coach targeting grades K-5. Through these efforts she has supported teachers with effectively implementing all components of the SDP balanced literacy framework, developed reading intervention strategies around small-group instruction, and created data-trackers to support with phonological awareness for students in K-2.

Amanda grew up in Mt. Airy Philadelphia and attended Ivy Leaf and Masterman School. She is a proud product of the School District of Philadelphia.